DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A, drawn to couple the FPC to the actuator body by rivet deformation for claim 19.

Species B, drawn to couple the FPC to the actuator body by adhesive bonding for claim 20.

Species C, drawn to couple the FPC to the actuator body by solder bonding for claim 21.

Species D, drawn to couple the coil to an FPC trace by solder bonding for claim 22.

Species E, drawn to couple the coil to an FPC trace by stitch bonding for claim 23.

Species F, drawn to couple the HGA assembly to the FPC assembly by adhesive bonding for claim 24.

Species G, drawn to couple the HGA assembly to the FPC assembly by rivet deformation for claim 25.

Species H, drawn to couple the HGA assembly to the FPC assembly by screw mounting for claim 26.

Species I, drawn to couple the FSA trace to a bonding pad of the FPC assembly by tape automated bonding (TAB) for claim 27.

Species J, drawn to couple the FSA trace to a bonding pad of the FPC assembly by anisotropic conductive film (ACF) bonding for claim 28.

Species K, drawn to couple the multi-piece loadbeam to the unimount baseplate by laser welding for claim 29.

Species L, drawn to couple the FSA trace to the HGA assembly by ultra-violet (UV) epoxy bonding for claim 30.

Species M, drawn to couple the FPC assembly to the metal bracket by lamination for claim 31.

Species N, drawn to couple the FPC assembly to the plastic bracket by pin insertion for claim 32.

Species O, drawn to couple the coil to the actuator body by epoxy for claim 33.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 10 is a generic claim.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

2. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Paul D. Kim whose telephone number is 571-272-4565.

The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday between 7:00 AM to 3:00 PM.
